Dear Sir,

It is the first time that a "First UP Agricultural Science Congress 2013" is being organized on 17-19 August, 2013 under the able leadership of Shri Alok Ranjan Ji, IAS, Agriculture Production Commissioner UP to promote and strengthen the Agricultural Education, Research and Transfer of Technology activities through the active participation of eminent scientists, educationists and other agencies/authorities associated directly or indirectly with the development/ dissemination of technologies and for the upliftment of communities associated with farming.

Considering your vast experiences and knowledge in different fields of Agriculture, the organizing committee needs your blessings and valuable ideas/suggestions to make this congress a grand success. Your endeavors and efforts will definitely help us to achieve the goals through this intervention and discussion by the galaxy of participants and other stakeholders. Any kind of your support will further, enrich and encourage the organizers.

Kindly spare some time to guide us for various arrangements required to make the recommendations of congress a fruitful contributions in finalizing the roadmap to establish and create the confidence among the farming community to adopt agriculture as a successful profession for their livelihood.

Your response will be highly appreciable.

With regards,

Sincerely yours,

(R.S. Kureel)
Vice Chancellor
